Bro. Gorman: "Edgecombe has hoisted the Banner."—On the 13th, Bro. White and myself met in this place. At night, he addressed a large andrence in the Baptist (Church, and though he despaired of doing anything, having been told that he could not get enough to start the work, after a great strangle the enemy gave way and great strangle the enemy gave way and great strangle the enemy gave way and the entire strangle the form the bund. The Division then closed and each brother worked several years at his trade. Hon. Mr. Disney, democratic member of Congress from Ohio, was a journeyman of New York, wa obligation and left me to finish the organising and beautiful in appearance, the most ration the next night. On the next day Dr. cheering and happy in its influence on the cheering and happy in its influence on the Thomas and other friends, started a proposition among the merchants, that after the present stock of Alcohol was disposed of, they would buy no more; and though all the merchants did not pledge themselves, yet it found great favor with the community. At night I met the applicants and proceeded with the organisation; we initiated four more, making about twenty-three, with several other names on the tolle. Owing to the prese of business, we adjourned to meet again the following evening. The officers for the present quarter of Edgecombe Division, No. 201, are D. W. Bullock, W. P.; J. W. Sanders, W. A.; J. J. Williams, organization, and at the last meeting of P.; J. W. Sanders, W. A.; J. J. Williams, organization, and at the last meeting P.; J. W. Sanders, W. A.; J. J. Williams, organization, and at the last meeting of R. S.; T. W. Hussey, A. R. S.; J. B. the Division four more were initiated, wyatt, F. S.; N. M. Terrell, T.; F. L. Bond, C.; J. B. Hussey, A. G.; das. P. fair start for a new Division.

The officers are: J. L. Gladden, w P.; P. Lawrence, Chap.; R. Windorn, G. D.; Geo. Howard, Jr. P. W. P.

We have also succeeded in getting up an Application among the Ladies for a Union, and also a Section of Cadets, and the Division numbers Division, with a fine prosvision numbers thirty-hoo, with a fine pros-pect of increase. So Edgecombe, though last, is not least.
